

The John Wildman Memorial Team Sports Scholarship

In years past, John Wildman was a much-respected soccer coach in the community of Surrey who always gave generously of his time and talents. This $1500 annual award in his memory is given by his wife Helen, his sons Matt and Dave (who were Fleetwood Park graduates), his brother Ashley, and Scott Park (one of his long time former youth soccer players).

The winner of this award is a Fleetwood Park Boys' or Girls' Senior Sports Team member who:

- exemplifies good sportsmanship
- is an excellent team player, willing to help their teammates
- is generous with their time and talents
- is motivated, and a self-starter
- is a member of this year's graduating class
- has a strong academic record
- is pursuing post-secondary studies in university, college, or trade school

Instructions:

- Complete the application below.
- Include two (2) character reference letters (one from your coach or community supervisor; one from a Fleetwood Park teacher who has not been your coach).
- Attach a copy of an acceptance letter from a post-secondary institution.
- A copy of your most current transcript or diploma verification record is required, but Mr. Johnson will attach this.
- Forward entire application to Mr. Johnson at johnson\_derron@surreyschools.ca. All documentation must be received by .
